

Oldham Partnership Board: Declaration of interests September 2019

Name: JAYNE CLARKE

Interests are defined as any personal or business interest within the past five years which may, or may be perceived to; influence your judgment in performing your role. These may include:

- Schools for which you have direct responsibility (e.g. as Head Teacher or Executive Head Teacher).
- A company of any type for which you do paid or voluntary work.
- Academy trusts for which you work or are a member of the governing body.
- All schools which are members of your affiliated academy trusts or federation.
- Schools for which you are a member of the governing body.
- Charities you are a trustee for.
- Education-related or economic development-related organisations or providers of educational / economic development services for which you work or are a board member (please specify whether these are for-profit or are registered charities).
- Any other establishments of which you are a board member (please specify the type of organisation).
- Significant shareholding interests.

Other potential conflicts of interest:

- Any other organisations with which you are involved which may influence or could be perceived to influence your professional judgement in any way.
- Board attendees should also consider conflicts of interest that may arise where spouses, family members, professional colleagues (both past and present), and acquaintances are involved in areas on which they are asked to give advice. Please include the name of the person and the nature of the relationship in the comments column
